

A LONG, LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY, BUT UHLANS GOT THERE

They're Prisoners, 500 of Them, and Learning to Play Forty-fives.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Sept. 15.—On Tuesday a specially chartered steamer, the Barry, belonging to Bristol Channel ports, arrived at the North Wall with 500 German uhlans who were captured by the allies in various engagements. With the rank and file were several officers. Until the special train had been made up and brought to the North Wall Station of the London & North Western Railway Company the prisoners were kept on board the steamer and guarded by Scottish soldiers.

When the Germans were brought ashore they presented a very crestfallen appearance and looked worn and travel-stained. Some of the officers had the heels hanging off their boots, and were unshaven for a long time. Utter dejection seemed to have seized upon them.

They were treated with every courtesy by the English military officers having charge of the arrangements at the North Wall, and were accommodated in a first class railway carriage reserved to themselves for the journey from Dublin to the plains of Tipperary, where they are to be detained.

The hundreds of prisoners of the rank and file travelled in eight corridor carriages and were accompanied by British soldiers as escorts. The fifty or so wounded prisoners presented a sad spectacle as they were carried or helped from the special steamer to the compartment of the train, where ambulance men made them as comfortable as possible for the railway journey to Tipperary. The attendants in the hospital are teaching the wounded men how to play "forty-fives."

GENERAL WHO WON FAME AT PARIS SIEGE IN 1870 IS ATTACKING ANTWERP.

BERLIN (via London), Oct. 8 (Associated Press).—Major-Gen. Augustus Zelman, commander of the Second Bavarian Field Artillery, was killed in action on Sept. 24, it has just become known here.

Two new knights of the Order of the Iron Cross have been created. One is Rudolph Ullstein, associate publisher of the Vossische Zeitung, the Morgen Post and other papers, who is now serving with the volunteer auto corps. He is well known in the United States. The other is Dr. Adolf von Flecken, former councillor to the German Legation at Washington, who is now at the front.

The Reichs Anzähler of Oct. 8 contains export prohibitions against copper ore, nickel ore, vegetable oil, fat, fresh and dried animal intestines, albumen and gutta serena. Gen. von Bessler, who is directing operations at Antwerp, was called from the retirement list of 1912. He is a brother of the Prussian Minister of Justice. He distinguished himself in 1870 in the siege of Metz and Paris. He served for many years as chief of one of the engineering corps and as general inspector of fortresses. Recently he has been referee of the grand imperial autumn manoeuvres.

NEW TORPEDO FLINGS WATER 90 FEET HIGH

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 8.—Within a circle a mile in diameter in Coddington Cove hundreds of dead fish floated late yesterday, killed by the detonation of more than 200 pounds of a new explosive which had filled the war head of a torpedo fired into a steel torpedo net from the torpedo boat Morris. The boat, running at a 30-knot clip, was under the direction of Commander John K. Robison of the naval torpedo station.
